

GET A KICK OUT OF THE MOBILE COMMUTER STORE

With soccer wonder Freddy Adu heading up the team, D.C. United is one of the hottest tickets in town.

The Mobile Commuter Store (MCS) has partnered with D.C. United, Washington's Major League Soccer team, to promote public transportation. As a result of this unique partnership aimed at encouraging commuters to attend more home games, D.C. United has provided the Mobile Commuter Store with schedules and tickets.

The tickets will be raffled off to patrons of the MCS along with farecards that will enable them to get to the games more easily. Getting to the games at RFK stadium is simple by using the Stadium-Armory Metrorail station on the Blue and Orange lines.

To find out how you can win D.C. United tickets, check out www.CommuterPage.com/mobilestore.htm to view the schedule and visit the Mobile Commuter Store.
